YOUR FALL IN GREEN BAY GUIDE

Head to the bay for a season full of exciting events.

Green Bay Farmers Market

Over 75 vendors set up shop on Washington Street every Saturday to sell fresh produce, baked goods, flowers, cheese, crafts and more. Consider freshly picked apples from Apple Lane Orchard or maybe a delicious apple pie from Yoder's Fried Pies. And from 9-11:30 a.m., you can catch live music. Saturdays, 7 a.m.-12 p.m. through Oct. 29, Downtown Green Bay, Washington Street

Brews, Bistros & Bonfires

Featuring Big Love - A Tribute to Fleetwood Mac

Enjoy live outdoor music and beverages in the Botanical Garden's scenic Schneider Family Grand Garden. Big Love will be taking audiences through Fleetwood Mac's long and storied career. Sept. 9, Green Bay Botanical Garden, 2600 Larsen Rd.

Fall Art Block Party on Cedar

Green Bay's Olde Main Street Arts District comes alive for this event every year, with local artists selling their wares, along with live music, food vendors, and interactive art displays and exhibits. Sept. 8, The Art Garage, 1400 Cedar St.

Ashwaubenon Food Truck Rally

Sample some of Green Bay's best mobile eats at this food truck rally, which is hosting its last event of the season in September. The lineup includes favorites like Rusty's BBQ, The Dough Shop and Gourmet Corn. Sept. 15, 2881 S. Broadway

The Manitowoc Munsters

This musical comedy imagines what might happen if '60s-era television favorites "The Munsters" were from Manitowoc. The wacky show ran at the historic Meyer Theatre last year and returns by popular demand. Oct. 6-8, Meyer Theatre, 117 S. Washington St.

Craig Morgan

Country singer Craig Morgan is bringing his "God, Family, Country" tour to Green Bay this October. He'll be performing hits from his catalog, like "Almost Home," "Wake Up Loving You" and "Redneck Yacht Club." Oct. 19, Meyer Theatre, 117 S. Washington St.

Green Bay Vintage Market

This pop-up market comes to Badger State Brewing twice this fall, with over 100 vendors selling handmade goods, art, jewelry and more. Plus, food trucks will be on site and Badger State will be serving up brews from its taproom. Oct. 9 and Nov. 26, The Barrel Haus at Badger State Brewing, 990 Tony Canadeo Run

Craftoberfest

For a $45 general admission ticket, you get unlimited sampling access to this huge celebration of artisan beverages. There will be over 200 craft beers, ciders, wines and spirits to try. Last year's event sold out quickly, so head to reschcomplex.com to grab tickets early. Oct. 8, Resch Expo, 840 Armed Forces Dr.

Nate Bargatze

Grammy-nominated comedian Nate Bargatze is a rising star on the stand-up scene, with multiple Netflix specials and regular appearances on late night TV. Catch his latest tour at the Resch Center. His routine is clean and family friendly. Oct. 27, Resch Center, 840 Armed Forces Dr. ♦
